Overview

The purpose of this course is to increase knowledge of the social, political, anthropological, psychological and linguistic perspectives of intercultural communication and to enhance cultural competence in communication through practical application of intercultural communication principles and concepts. Past and present society illustrates the continuous need to understand and improve the ways in which we lead and function within a multicultural world. This course will examine and take a complex look at the underpinnings of multiculturalism, identity development, and leadership practices. Learners will examine values and beliefs, perceptions and practices, attitudes, and verbal and nonverbal behavior to identify and understand and learn about historical and present occurrences and individuals of diverse cultural backgrounds. The course will also explore issues of power, oppression, privilege and the responsibilities of leadership and communication.

7. Develop a cross-cultural understanding of the United States and a global society

8. Enhance their intercultural communication proficiency

Requirements

1. Attendance: Attendance to all class lectures is required. We cannot emphasize the importance of this requirement. Students will be expected to be active participants in class discussions. Your overall grade will be deducted for each missed lecture. The points deducted for leaving class early (without an appropriate excuse) are the same as those deducted for failure to attend. Punctuality is highly encouraged. If you are more than 15 minutes late to class, you will be considered absent. This does not include excused absences (i.e. absences excused by appropriate university officials and medical staff.). Any more than three unexcused absences from class will be grounds for failure in the course.
2. Class engagement: Students should take ownership of their own learning. It is expected that you are both physically present and mentally engaged during every class session. This means that you should come to class with questions and ideas you want to offer, absorb and challenge ideas offered by others, and always come willing and anxious to learn. Accordingly, participation is about more than a one-to-one dialogue with instructor and student; it is also about talking to and sharing ideas with your peers. Please be advised that as part of this engagement grade, students are expected to complete all reading assignments according to schedule. If you are sleeping in class, you are considered absent.
3. Assignments: All assignments must be typed and double-spaced; include page numbers and 1-inch margins; font should be “Times” or “Times New Roman” with a font size of 12, in APA Formatting. All assignments will be submitted electronically by the day that they are due at the time stated in Canvas. If you have questions about how to cite utilizing APA formatting, please utilize the following website: <https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/section/2/10/>

To ensure that disability-related concerns are properly addressed from the beginning, students with disabilities who require assistance to participate in this class are asked to inform the instructor as soon as possible.

Services for Students with Disabilities

The Disability Resource Center coordinates the needed accommodations of students with disabilities. This includes registering disabilities, recommending academic accommodations within the classroom, accessing special adaptive computer equipment, providing interpretation services and mediating faculty-student disability related issues. Students requesting classroom accommodation must first register with the Dean of Students Office. The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the Instructor when requesting accommodation (0001 Reid Hall, 352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/)

Late Paper Policy

Adherence to deadlines is extremely important. Barring a serious emergency (for which you must have an official documented excuse), there are no acceptable excuses for late papers. Therefore, SIGNIFICANT POINTS WILL BE DEDUCTED FROM LATE PAPERS. To that end, papers will be graded ten points lower for the first day that they are late and two points lower for each day thereafter.

PLAGIARISM

Plagiarism includes turning in writing that is not your own, copying sections of someone else’s work into your own, cutting and pasting material from websites, and failing to cite your sources. It is YOUR responsibility to understand the full definition of what constitutes plagiarism and ensure that you do not turn in any work that even remotely suggests such a practice. Evidence of plagiarism on any assignment may result in a zero for that assignment, a failing grade for the course, and the possibility of disciplinary action by the university. If you have questions about citing sources or what constitutes plagiarism, consult the following website: http://owl.english.purdue.edu/handouts/research/r_apa.html.

Academic Honesty

As a student at the University of Florida, you have committed yourself to uphold the Honor Code, which includes the following pledge: “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.” You are expected to exhibit behavior consistent with this commitment to the UF academic community, and on all work submitted for credit at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.”

It is assumed that you will complete all work independently in each course unless the instructor provides explicit permission for you to collaborate on course tasks (e.g. assignments, papers, quizzes, exams). Furthermore, as part of your obligation to uphold the Honor Code, you should report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. It is your individual responsibility to know and comply with all university policies and procedures regarding academic integrity and the Student Honor Code. Violations of the Honor Code at the University of Florida will not be tolerated. Violations will be reported to the Dean of Students Office for consideration of disciplinary action. For more information regarding the Student Honor Code, please see: <http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code>.

Software Use

All faculty, staff and students of the university are required and expected to obey the laws and legal agreements governing software use. Failure to do so can lead to monetary damages and/or criminal penalties for the individual violator. Because such violations are also against university policies and rules, disciplinary action will be taken as appropriate.

“Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner is available at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/students/>. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via <https://ufl.bluera.com/ufl/>. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at <https://gatorevals.aa.ufl.edu/public-results/>.”

Assignments

Papers, presentations, projects, and quizzes will be assigned throughout the semester. All assignments will be turned in through the course Canvas website, except for quizzes. Should you have questions regarding assignments, it is your responsibility to contact your TA for clarification. Please ensure that you check the grading rubrics on Canvas for each of the assignments (excluding quizzes) to ensure that you are completing them in a way to receive maximum credit/points.

Critical Reading Analysis Posts

Each week, you will be assigned intentional readings that will be illustrative of the assigned topic. We expect that you have read the material, digested it, and have thought critically about the material before coming to class. To that end, you will be assigned Critical Reading & Analysis Discussion Posts (C.R.A.P.). Create one original post (due Monday at 12 noon) and two responses (due Wednesday 11:59pm) to peers by interacting with at least two of the weekly discussion posts. Your posts should be reflective of all readings for the entire week. Discussion prompts will be different each week.

Weekly Reading Quizzes

Weekly quizzes will be given online each week unless otherwise noted by the professor. They will be focused on the assigned reading for the week. On assigned quiz weeks, quizzes will open in the "quizzes" section of Canvas on Monday at 8:00am. The quiz will close online at 11:59pm on Tuesday. You will be allotted 30 minutes to complete each quiz. Make-up quizzes will only be given at the discretion of the instructors for University Approved Absences or serious illness. Documentation will be required.

Papers

Cultural Self Reflection Essay:

The purpose of this autobiographical essay is to increase self-awareness of the cultures and beliefs you represent and that shape your life experiences as a leader and community member.

This paper will be 3 pages in length and does not require citation of sources.

“Danger of a Single Story” Reflection Paper:

There is often little time in our day-to-day lives to stop and reflect on our thoughts, values, and actions. As such, the purpose of this assignment is to write a reflection paper, utilizing the prompts given by the professor, on the TED talk “Danger of a Single Story”. This paper must be in APA format and be a minimum of 2 pages. This assignment should not be longer than 3 pages. Direct quotes and examples from the TED video must be used in this reflection paper, along with your own personal experiences.

Film Analysis

Instructors will choose and announce the name of the specific film as the assignment deadline approaches.

Your analysis should be at least 4 pages in length and incorporate your thoughts on the following questions:

- a. Identify and explain 2 intercultural communication issues within the film, as well as discuss the cultures involved in the issues selected.
- b. What are your own beliefs with regards to this issue?
- c. Utilizing what you have learned in this class, how do you suggest society solves these issues?
- d. Why are understanding these issues important to increasing intercultural communication?

Book Review – The Absolutely True Story of a Part-Time Indian

One way that we learn about culture is through the stories we hear and read. This semester you will have a chance to read The Absolutely True Story of a Part-Time Indian by Alexie Sherman to explore one such story. After reading the book and discussing the themes in class, you should write a paper that both connects the book to the course themes as well as provide your own reflection. The paper should be 3-pages (minimum) and should address the following questions/topics. The due date is noted in the course schedule.

Final Exam

Your final assignment for the class will be a robust reflection paper that illustrates what you have learned in the course and how it connects to your future endeavors. This is an academic paper and should include citations from the course readings. The final reflection will be due on is the final exam date for the course.

Group Presentations

“Keeping it Current” Presentation

This assignment is focused on staying connected to current issues within society. Often times we are so consumed with theory or historical context that we fail to pay attention to things happening NOW around us. Students must get current event approved by the instructor NO LATER than 1 class period before presentation.

Group Composition, presentation dates, and times of the presentations will be assigned by the second week of the semester. Your group will be responsible for informing the class about a current event that applies to current course topics. Your time limit is 20 minutes. You may show a news clip, video, or website and give a brief overview of the event followed by three discussion questions. A presentation visual aid is required (e.g. PowerPoint, Prezi, etc.) You must also submit your presentation and any handouts online on canvas BEFORE you present to the class. Every group member will receive the same score for this portion of the grading of this project.

“Keeping it Current” and “Heavy History” Presentation Peer Evaluations

For group presentations, you will evaluate your group members anonymously through the link posted on Canvas. We will see your name to give you credit for this activity, but your name will not be connected to your feedback of specific group members. You must complete this evaluation no later than 48-hours after your presentation to the class.

Your grade for this assignment will be based on two criteria:

- 1) Did you complete the evaluation within 48 hours of your in-class presentation and were responses of substance
 - 2) The collected feedback your group members gave about your performance on the group presentation.
- Instructors will use their discretionary judgement to filter the anonymous results and award points fairly to each individual group member.

“Heavy History” Group Presentation

As the saying goes, “You can't know where you're going until you know where you've been”. While it is important to pay attention to current events and occurrences in society, it is important to understand and recall history, because history is one of the most essential tools to help guide and nurture society to a more fruitful and just space. For this assignment, you will be placed in groups. Each group will draw (raffle style) a topic to present on. Topics will focus on historical court cases or occurrences in history that have changed, shaped, or altered society.

Extra Credit Opportunities

Below are the only anticipated extra credit opportunities for the semester. Please take advantage of them, because it is extremely unlikely we will offer additional opportunities.

Your Expectations of Intercultural Communication Discussion Post

During the first week of the course, we are excited to learn what you hope to gain out of this course and what you expect of us, your instructors. Complete the online discussion post by the deadline in the course schedule to earn up to 1 points of extra credit.

Syllabus & Expectations – Where We Start From Quiz

We want to ensure that you get started on the right foot in the course. On the first day of class we will cover the syllabus and basic course expectations. You will have until the date in the course schedule to complete the online Syllabus and Expectations quiz to earn up to 2 points of extra credit.

Intercultural Activities Attendance and Reflection(s)

Throughout the semester you will have several opportunities to participate in intercultural activities. Different types of activities must be chosen for the experiences which will be explained by the instructor. After participating in the activity, submit an electronic report submitted on Canvas for each assignment within 2 weeks of attending event. The written report should consist of two (2) typed, double-spaced pages. You may complete a maximum of 2 intercultural activities extra credit assignments for the semester. Each assignment is worth 3 extra credit points.

Write if you will: but write about the world as it is and as you think it ought to be and must be—if there is to be a world. Write about all the things that men [& all genders] have written about since the beginning of writing and talking—but write to a point. Work hard at it, care about it. Write about our people: tell their story. You have something glorious to draw on begging our attention. Don't pass it up. Use it. Good luck to you. This nation needs your gifts. Perfect them! (Hansberry, 1960, 263)
