COURSE + UNIVERSITY POLICIES

In-Class Recording: Students are allowed to record video or audio of class lectures. However, the purposes for which these recordings may be used are strictly controlled. The only allowable purposes are (1) for personal educational use, (2) in connection with a complaint to the university, or (3) as evidence in, or in preparation for, a criminal or civil proceeding. All other purposes are prohibited. Specifically, students may not publish recorded lectures without the written consent of the instructor.

A “class lecture” is an educational presentation intended to inform or teach enrolled students about a particular subject, including any instructor-led discussions that form part of the presentation, and delivered by any instructor hired or appointed by the University, or by a guest instructor, as part of a University of Florida course. A class lecture does not include lab sessions, student presentations, clinical presentations such as patient history, academic exercises involving solely student participation, assessments (quizzes, tests, exams), field trips, private conversations between students in the class or between a student and the faculty or lecturer during a class session.

Publication without permission of the instructor is prohibited. To “publish” means to share, transmit, circulate, distribute, or provide access to a recording, regardless of format or medium, to another person (or persons), including but not limited to another student within the same class section. Additionally, a recording, or transcript of a recording, is considered published if it is posted on or uploaded to, in whole or in part, any media platform, including but not limited to social media, book, magazine, newspaper, leaflet, or third-party note/tutoring services. A student who publishes a recording without written consent may be subject to a civil cause of action instituted by a person injured by the publication and/or discipline under UF Regulation 4.040 Student

Attendance/Engagement: It is an expectation that you attend every class session; we desire both your physical presence, as well as your mental engagement with the course content.

Attendance/Engagement are a factor in your final grade for the course. This course includes a number of guest speakers that may prohibit the recording of a class session; as such, some sessions and connected assignments may not be feasible for ‘making up’ a class.

We are mindful of the strong relevance of our course content to the current state of our world. Inasmuch, we are aware that unexpected things happen in life (i.e. global pandemic, health emergencies, internet issues, etc.) that are outside of your control; we simply ask that you be open and honest regarding barriers to attendance/engagement so we can work something out. Should you be unable to attend class, please contact me prior to the class session you will be absent from. More information regarding university attendance policy can be found at <https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/attendance-policies/>.

E-Learning: All students are expected to check Canvas (<https://elearning.ufl.edu/>) on a regular basis. Please ensure that you have access to this service. Additional handouts, readings and supplemental material will be housed in Canvas, this includes your grades.

Software Use: All faculty, staff and students of the university are required and expected to obey the laws and legal agreements governing software use. Failure to do so can lead to monetary damages and/or criminal penalties for the individual violator. Because such violations are also against university policies and rules, disciplinary action will be taken as appropriate.

Course Add/Drop: Courses may be dropped or added during the Drop/Add period without penalty. The Drop/Add period is the first five days of classes during fall or spring semester, and the first two days of classes for summer terms. The specific dates are listed in each term's academic calendar.

After Drop/Add, students may withdraw from a course up to the date established in the university calendar. A grade of W will appear on the transcript, and students will be held liable for course fees. All drops after Drop/Add must be submitted to the Office of the University Registrar by the deadline.

Online Course Evaluation System: Students are expected to provide professional and respectful feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing course evaluations online via GatorEvals. Click here for guidance on how to give feedback in a professional and respectful manner. Students will be notified when the evaluation period opens, and can complete evaluations through the email they receive from GatorEvals, in their Canvas course menu under GatorEvals, or via ufl.bluer.com/ufl/. Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students here.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY:

In 1995 the UF student body enacted an honor code and voluntarily committed itself to the highest standards of honesty and integrity. When students enroll at the university, they commit themselves to the standard drafted and enacted by students.

The Honor Pledge: We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity.

On all work submitted for credit by students at the university, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment."

Students should report any condition that facilitates dishonesty to the instructor, department chair, college dean, Student Honor Council, or Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution in the Dean of Students Office.

(Student Responsibilities < University of Florida \(ufl.edu\))

It is assumed all work will be completed independently unless the assignment is defined as a group project in writing by the instructor.

Plagiarism: A Student must not represent as the Student's own work all or any portion of the work of another. Plagiarism includes but is not limited to:

- Stealing, misquoting, insufficiently paraphrasing, or patch-writing.
- Self-plagiarism, which is the reuse of the Student's own submitted work, or the simultaneous submission of the Student's own work, without the full and clear acknowledgment and permission of the Faculty to whom it is submitted.
- Submitting materials from any source without proper attribution.
- Submitting a document, assignment, or material that, in whole or in part, is identical or substantially identical to a document or assignment the Student did not author.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

This is My World Credo – The ways in which we address complex, adaptive challenges require an understanding of our personal world view and an understanding of how our views impact potential solutions, collaborations, etc. Each student will write a credo expressing their world view. Additional details for the assignment are located in Canvas.

Leadership Lab Deliverables – Students will participate in reflective activities during 7 class sessions, which may result in individual or group deliverables. The activities require students to apply course content to their lives, communities, and/or current regional/global events as they reflect on knowledge gained from course content, the various guest presenters concerning global issues and the discussions with their peers that follow. Students are expected to demonstrate quality depth of thought, critical thinking, and creativity in their deliverables. Additional details and the grading rubric for the assignment are located in Canvas.

Global Issue Brief Project – Students will engage upon a semester long inquiry to a specific global issue through individual research and exploration. This project will build through the semester with six smaller assignments to provide feedback toward your final brief:

- Issue SDG Exploration – Each student will identify a specific Sustainable Development Goal relevant to their personal interests, then explore what elements of that goal will be focused upon for the project in a specified geographic context.
 - Issue Scope & Importance – For the issue in focus, each student will identify a minimum of 5 academic articles that describe your selected issue and provide an annotated bibliography for those articles. Additional supporting articles (popular or academic) should be utilized to present a comprehensive understanding (scope and importance) of your issue in the selected context in written form as a strong draft of this section.
 - Issue System – For the selected global issue, each student will illustrate the connected systems. Additionally, the Issue Brief written stakeholder description is submitted.
 - Final Elements – For the selected global issue, each student will describe the technical and adaptive challenges, identify organizations currently making progress on the issue, and make recommendations for future progress.
 - Issue Brief – A 5-7 page designed research brief with academic citations provides depth of context for the selected global issue.
 - Issue Infographic – Each student will create an infographic poster for their global issue.
- Additional details and the grading rubric for the assignment are located in Canvas.

Engagement – Active participation is critical to our course. Student will be evaluated on depth of thought, direction of perspectives, and overall benefit to the class and our collective learning. Attendance, interaction with guest speakers, online participation, etc. will all play a role in your engagement grade.

COURSE GRADING

Grades will be earned based on the degree to which the student fulfills the assigned requirements for the designated project, integrates course discussions and perspectives, provides support from the literature for his or her findings, and synthesizes his or her own independent thought into the assignment.
